

Substitute Employment

The following procedures shall be in effect:

- A. Substitute teachers will be provided a username and password to Substitute Online, once they have completed the necessary paperwork and clearances to be placed on the substitute list. Substitute Online is an internet-based substitute assignment system. The substitute coordinator will monitor Substitute Online from home every morning and attempt to fill any absences which have not been filled by the system by calling substitute teachers.
- B. Teachers who are ill and unable to be present for duty in the morning shall report their absence on the Substitute Online system, and if it is after 6:30 a.m., they shall also call their building principal to let them know they will not be in on that day.
- C. Teachers who feel ill and do not expect to be able to teach the next day may also log their absence on to the Substitute Online at any time the day preceding their absence.
- D. Human Resources shall be responsible for keeping the record of days taught by the substitute and shall notify the district office when the 21st day of substituting shall begin.
- E. The Superintendent's office shall notify the substitute coordinator in the event leave has been granted to a teacher, indicating the beginning and termination dates.

In the performance of their duties, substitute teachers shall be expected to:

- A. Have the same responsibilities and work day as regular teachers.
- B. Attend staff meetings unless excused by the principal.
- C. Follow the lesson plan prepared by the regular teacher or comply with the instructions from the principal. The principal shall review the lesson plans of the absent teacher when advance planning is possible. When not, the absent teacher shall have made provisions for the substitute in the daily plan book.
- D. On completing an assignment, prepare a definite statement of the work accomplished in each subject, specifying pages covered in various textbooks. New assignments should be noted in the teacher's assignment book or upon a card inserted in the desk copy of the text. All papers should be graded, records made and preparations for the next day completed.
- E. Maintain the "housekeeping" arrangements of the regular teacher.
- F. Administer no corporal punishment to a child. The principal should be contacted in the case of a serious behavior problem.
- G. Complete building reports, including:
 - 1. Attendance reports
 - 2. Student progress, report cards and warning slips after conferring with the principal.
 - 3. Communications to parents with the approval of the principal.

- H. Report to the principal's office before leaving the building in the evening to see if services are needed on the following day.

Substitutes for classified staff shall be contacted in the following manner:

- A. Food Services - The food service department will attempt to fill this temporary assignment by contacting one or more qualified individuals from the appropriate list.
- B. Transportation - The transportation department is authorized to fill this temporary assignment from a list of qualified drivers.
- C. Maintenance - Unless a state of urgency exists maintenance positions will not be filled by a substitute.
- D. Operations - The principal is authorized to employ a substitute custodian from the approved list.
- E. Secretary - The principal is authorized to employ a substitute secretary from the approved list when the position is vital to the operation of the unit e.g., one-secretary school, attendance secretary, etc.
- F. Teacher and Library Aide - The principal is authorized to employ a substitute when the role of the aide is critical to the operation of the unit e.g., playground aide, library aide.

The substitute for a classified staff member should report to the office of the unit administrator at the end of the day to determine if service, on the following day will be needed.
